DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-7 and 11, drawn to a liquid jetting apparatus/controlling unit wherein a measuring unit that can measure a continuous operating time of the micro-vibrating unit by the out-of-jetting micro-vibrating signal is provided, a standard-time storing unit that stores a predetermined standard time is provided, and a signal-generating controlling unit that can compare the continuous operating time and the standard time, and that can cause the signal generating unit to change the out-of-jetting micro-vibrating signal based on result of the comparison is provided, classified in class 347, subclass 9.
- II. Claims 8-10 and 12, drawn to a liquid jetting apparatus/controlling unit wherein the out-of-jetting micro-vibrating controlling unit is adapted to cause the micro-vibrating unit to operate during at least a part of time for which the capping mechanism seals the nozzle, and the out-of-jetting micro-vibrating controlling unit is adapted to repeat a controlling step of causing the micro-vibrating unit to operate for a first constant time and causing the micro-vibrating unit not to operate for a second constant time while the capping mechanism seals the nozzle, classified in class 347, subclass 29.

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as being used to prevent viscosity of liquid in nozzles for a liquid jetting apparatus that does not have a capping function. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Based on the interview held on 08/12/05, the examiner has realized that the claimed invention for Groups I and II are more narrow and complex than previously thought. The examiner has also realized that though both Groups I and II deal with micro-vibrating on a general level, the actual inventive concepts represented by each group branches off to divergent subject matter. Group I deals with signal control based on a time comparison while Group II deals more with signal control based on capping. Thus, this election/restriction requirement is necessary. However, upon receiving the applicant's response to election/restriction, the examiner will conduct a new search and issue a new non-final rejection.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Leonard S. Liang whose telephone number is (571) 272-2148. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-5 Monday-Friday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Stephen Meier can be reached on (571) 272-2149. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
